

National Family Violence Legislative Resource Center Presents:

From Ideology to Inclusion: Evidence-Based Policy and Intervention in Domestic Violence

The founders, pioneers and today's most respected experts together in this historic, one-of-a-kind conference!

Erin Pizzey
Founder of the Battered Women
Shelter Movement

Linda Mills
PhD, LCSW, JD
New York University

Murray
Straus, PhD
University of New Hampshire

Donald
Dutton, PhD
University of British Columbia

Jennifer Langhinrichsen-
Rohling, PhD
University of South Alabama

And also featuring:

Phillip Cook * Miriam Ehrensaft, PhD * Nicola Graham-Kevan, PhD * John Hamel, LCSW
Janet Johnston, PhD * Marlene Moretti, PhD * Tonia Nicholls, PhD

5 Plenary Presentations + 15 Breakout Sessions. Topics Include:

Current Policy Issues * Male Victims * Use and Misuse of Restraining Orders * DV in the LGBT Community
Research Trends * Female Perpetrators * Effects of Mandatory Arrest * DV in Ethnic Minority Groups
Developmental Perspectives * Power and Control in the DV Industry * Abuse Versus Alienation
Limitations of the Patriarchal Paradigm * Gender-Inclusive Interventions * Model Batterer Programs
* Co-ed Shelters * The Shelter Movement & Public Policy * DV, Children & Adolescents
* Interventions in Disputed Child Custody Cases * Couples/Family Treatment * Working with Child Victims

Friday/Saturday, February 15-16, 2008
Sacramento, California

For updated information about location, conference schedule and registration, visit the website of the National Family Violence Legislative Resource Center at www.NFVLRC.org

Continuing education credits available for LCSW's, MFT's, PhD's, Batterer Intervention Providers and Family Court Mediators/Evaluators * MCLE credits available for attorneys

Conference co-sponsors: Family Violence Treatment & Education Association (www.FAVTEA.com), California Alliance for Families and Children (www.cafcusa.org)